YORK: PRINTED BY W. BLANCHARD.

[To be continued annually.]

THE publishers of this work flatter themselves that it will meet with a favourable reception from the Gentlemen of the Turf.

By the omission of all superfluous matter, they have been able to comprize the accounts of the races in Great-Britain for the year 1786, with a great variety of other useful articles, in a much less compass than hitherto attempted, and at a price considerably lower than that of any book of the kind ever offered to the public.

In this volume is given, the names of the Stewards for the different races; alphabetical list of the winning horses, and the pedigrees of those most distinguished; cock-matches during the year, &c. &c.—Also an account of the races at Malton from the year 1750 to the present time; with a copious index.

In the volume for 1787, the races at Newcastle will be given in like manner, and during the same period as those at Malton are printed in this volume.—And the sport at Newmarket from a much earlier date, will commence in the volume for 1788, and be continued in the succeeding ones. These will be accompanied with the pedigrees and historical accounts of the most remarkable Stallions, Arabians, Barbs, and Brood Mares, together with such anecdotes of racing, &c. as deserve to be preserved: So that in a few years, all the material and interesting intelligence in the sporting line of the present century will be included in the SPORTSMAN and BREEDERS'S VADE-MECUM.

The numerous and very respectable list of subscribers to this work, demands the sincerest thanks of the Publishers, who will exert their utmost endeavours to render it worthy the patronage and encouragement of the public.

 * * Such Gentlemen as wish to have the pedigrees of their horses, &c. inserted in the succeeding volumes, are requested to send copies of such pedigrees before the 1st of November in each year, which shall have a proper attention paid to them.*

R E L A T I V E T O
H O R S E - R A C I N G.

K I N G ' s P L A T E A R T I C L E S.

It is his MAJESTY's Command, that these following Rules be observed by the Owners and Riders of all such horses, mares, or geldings, as shall run for his Majesty's plates.

* By a late order the King's plates at Newmarket and York, are altered to ONE HEAT.

II. III. Every horse, mare or gelding that runneth, is to start between the hours of one and four in the afternoon; and to be allowed half an hour between each heat to rub.

IV. Every horse, mare or gelding that runneth on the wrong side of the posts or flags, or is distanced in any of the heats, shall have no share of the said plate, nor be suffered to run any more.

V. The horse, mare or gelding that winneth any two heats, winneth the plate; but if three several horses, mares or geldings, win each of them a heat, then those three, and only they, to run a fourth heat; and the horse, mare or gelding that winneth the fourth heat, shall have the plate.

Extraordinary Intelligence.

AS disputes frequently arise respecting the drawing of bets, between horses that run three heats; the following decision of the Jockey Club at Newmarket in the year 1756, on a case of this kind, is inserted here for the purpose of being referred to in settling disputes in similar cases.

NEWMARKET, MAY, 1756.

The Jockey-Club Plate of 100gs. was run for, wt. 8st. 7lb. heats, four-miles each, R. C.

Duke of Ancafter's bay horse, Spectator, aged 6	1	1
Mr Crofts's dun horse, Brilliant, 6 yrs old —	1	2 4
Mr Fenwick's bay horse, Match'em, aged —	3	3 3
Lord Gower's bay horse, Sweepstakes, aged	4	4 5
Sir W. Middleton's c. h. Whistlejacket, aged	5	5 2
D. of Cumberland's grey horse, Crab, aged	2	dr

Large sums being depending between Match'em and Whistlejacket, disputes arose which should be deemed to have the best of the race. The matter being referred to the Jockey-Club, they posted the horses in the above manner, in consequence of the advertisement having stated that it should be "the best two heats of three." The bets, therefore, were paid in favour of Match'em. And as the advertisements in general state "the best two heats of three" we think there cannot in reason, be any dispute in respect of the posting of the horses and the determination of bets in future.

Mr Atkinson's bay mare	_____	2
Mr Frost's bay mare, Governess, 5 yrs old (fell)		3

Governess the favourite.

The above prize is free from the influence of Parliament, relating to horse-racing, being settled for ever. It was founded by a body of Foxhunters (appointing it to be annually run for on the third Thursday in March) who taking a liking to the Wolds of that part of Yorkshire, were pleased to deposit the sums, from whence the prize annually arises; and although but sixteen guineas, yet, as the time of running for it is in the beginning of the season, it was formerly looked upon as a proper trial, or proof for horses how they had come through the winter, and many good horses in the North have often started for the same.

F A R N D O N, CHESHIRE.

ON Monday the 20th, and Tuesday the 21st of March, the two Annual Prizes, for horses, &c. wt. 10ft. was walk'd over for by Mr Gatfield's bay horse, Joe Andrews, by Eclipse, aged.

These two prizes are also free from the act of Parliament. They were about 105 years ago founded by subscription, from the interest of which, the two prizes annually arise, appointing them to be yearly run for on the Monday and Tuesday following St. Chud's Day. They are both free for any horse, &c. and the first consists of nine guineas (by the foundation) and the second of twenty-one guineas, to each of which prize is annually added the entrance money of the preceding year.— For the first prize it is only one guinea entrance; for the second, all who are deemed subscribers (which are those who are successors in the families, that originally deposited sums from whence these prizes annually arise) pay one guinea entrance, and others five guineas, and five more if the horse, &c. be deemed distanced. The weight for each is 10st. exclusive of bridle and saddle; it is but one heat for the first prize, and the best of three for the second.

Mr Bullock's bay horse, Rockingham	—	dis
Mr Dowson's bay horse, Clayhall	—	dis

Very high odds on Rockingham.—In running, Rockingham being a great way a-head, a concourse of people, who were crowded about the post that they were to pass, rendered it impossible for the rider to see it, and the people dividing, the greater part separated on the outer side, which so misled South, who rode Rockingham, that he went on the wrong side, and Clayhall followed him, by which means Marplot's rider, who was a distance behind, saw the mistake, and kept the course.

COCKING, 1786.

D E R B Y.

ON Friday, April 28, ended the Great Cock-Match between the Gentlemen of Staffordshire (J. Bestow, feeder) and the Gentlemen of Nottinghamshire, (Mark Davidson, feeder) consisting of 27 battles, which was won by Nottinghamshire.

C H E S H I R E.

During the Races, a Main of Cocks was fought between the Gentlemen of Cheshire, (Boyer, feeder) and the Gentlemen of Lancashire, (Mather, feeder) consisting of 22 main, and 13 bye battles, for 10gs. a battle, and 200 the main, which was won by the former, six a-head in the main, and one in the byes.

G R A N T H A M.

During the Races, a Main of Cocks was fought between A. Lucas, Esq; (Fauketh, feeder) and E. Gould, Esq; (Bestow, feeder) consisting of 17 main and 14 bye-battles, for 4gs. a battle, and 100gs. the main or odd battle; which was won by the latter, 3 a-head in the main, and 4 in the byes.

L A N C A S T E R.

During the Races, a Main of Cocks was fought, the Earl of Surrey and Lord A. Hamilton, (Richardson, feeder) against Edward Buckley and Henry Welch, Esqrs. (Brookes, feeder) consisting of 20 battles, whereof the former won 11, and the latter 9.—There were 22 bye-battles, 13 of which were won by the former, and 9 by the latter.

M A N C H E S T E R .

During the Races, a Main of Cocks was fought between the Gentlemen of Lancashire and Cheshire, consisting of 31 main battles, which was won by the latter, 10 a head; Cheshire had also a majority of 7 in the byes.

N E W C A S T L E - U P O N - T Y N E .

During the Races, a Main of Cocks was fought, between the Duke of Hamilton, (Richardson, feeder) and General Beckwith, (Small, feeder) whereof the former won 11 main and 12 byes, and the latter 10 main and 6 byes.

N O T T I N G H A M .

Friday in the Race-Week, ended the Great Cock-Match between the Gentlemen of Nottingham (Smith, feeder) and the Gentlemen of Derbyshire, (Beestall, feeder) the main consisted of 29 battles, whereof the former won 17, and the latter 11, there being one drawn battle; out of 11 bye-battles, Beestall won 7.

P O N T E F R A C T .

Friday, March 10, ended the Long Main of Cocks betwixt the Right Hon. the Earl of Mexborough and William Sotheron, Esq; for 10gs. a battle, and 100gs. the main, Ouldred and Smith, feeders.—This main was perhaps the most extraordinary ever known, it consisted of 29 battles: The first day's fight Smith got one a-head; the second day Ouldred got one; after the first going in the last day, both equal. The last going in they had 14 battles each, so that this grand main, which had been contested three days, on which great sums of money were depending, was brought to the chance of a single battle, which was ably fought for by both sides for near an hour, and at the last DRAWN.—It was also remarkable that each party got the same number of bye-battles.—Smith had a fine collection of cocks, but was unfortunate in his choice, some of which ran away, or he certainly would have won; on the other hand Ouldred had not one failed. The meeting was attended by a great number of gentlemen, and the most respectable that ever met at Pontefract.

P E T E R B O R O U G H.

During the Races, a Main of Cocks was fought between the Gentlemen of Northamptonshire and the Gentlemen of Rutlandshire, consisting of 31 main and 10 bye-battles, for 5gs. a battle, and 100gs. the main or odd battle, which was won by the latter 2 a-head.

vided into, as pits or day's play, at the Cock-Pit aforesaid; and that the party's cocks that win the greatest number of battle-matches out of the number aforesaid, shall be intitled to the sum of guineas, as odd battle-shares between the parties aforesaid; and the parties

further agree to produce, shew, and weigh, on the said weighing day, cocks, for bye-battles, subject to the same weight as the main-cocks before mentioned, and those to be added to the number of main cocks un-ounce of each other, shall fight for two guineas each battle, to be as equally divided as possibly can be, and added to each pit or day's play with the main of the cocks; and it is also agreed, that the balance of the battle-money shall be paid at the end of each pit or day's play; and to fight in fair reputed silver spurs, and with fair hackles; and to be subject to all the usual rules of cock fighting, as is practised at London and Newmarket;

and the profit of the pit or day's play to be equally di-

RULES for MATCHING and FIGHTING of COCKS in LONDON, which have been in practise ever since the reign of King
CHARLES the Second.

TO begin the same by fighting the lighter pair of cocks (which fall in match) first, proceeding upwards to the end; that every lighter pair may fight earlier than those that are heavier.

M

In matching (with relation to the battles) it is a rule always in London, That after the cocks of the main are weighed, the match bills are compared.

That every pair of dead, or equal weight, are separated, and fight against others ; provided that it appears that the main can be enlarged by adding thereto, either one battle or more thereby.

RACES to COME.

An ELEGY on the DEATH
OF THE LATE
JOHN PRATT, Esq;
OF ASKRIGG in WENSLEYDALE,
Who died at NEWMARKET, MAY 8, 1785.

A Character so eccentric—so variable—so valuable,
Astonish'd the age he liv'd in.
Tho' small his patrimony,
Yet assisted by that, and his own genius,
He for upwards of thirty years
Supported all the hospitality
Of an ancient BARON.

The excellent qualities of his heart
Were eminently evinc'd
By his bounty to the poor,
His sympathetic feelings for distress,
And his charity for all mankind.
Various and wonderful were the means
Which enabled him, with unsullied reputation,
To support his course of life ;
In which he saw and experienced
Many TRIALS, and many vicissitudes
Of Fortune ;
And tho' often hard press'd, whipt, and spurr'd
By that jockey NECESSITY,
He never swerv'd out of the course
Of Honour.

Once, when his finances were impair'd,
He receiv'd a seasonable supply
By the performance of a Miracle !
At different periods he exhibited
(Which were just emblems of his own life)

A Conundrum—an Ænigma—and a Riddle;
And, strange to tell ! even these Enrich'd his pocket.

Without incurring censure
He train'd up an Infidel,
Which turn'd out to his advantage.
He had no singular partiality
For flowers, shrubs, fruit, or birds,
Yet for several years he maintain'd a Florist ;
And his Red-Rose more than once
Obtain'd the premium.

He had a Honeysuckle, and a Pumpkin
Which brought hundreds into his purse ;
And a Phoenix, a Nightingale, a Goldfinch and a Chaffinch
Which produc'd him thousands.

In the last war
He was owner of a Privateer
Which brought him in several valuable prizes.

Tho' never fam'd for gallantry
Yet he had in keeping, at different periods,
A Virgin, a Maiden, an Orange Girl, and a Ballad-singer, Besides several Misses,*
To all of whom his attachment was notorious.
And (what is still more a paradox)
Tho' he had no issue by his lawful Wife,
Yet the numerous progeny and quick abilities
Of these very females
Prov'd to him a source of supply.

With all his seeming peculiarities and foibles,
He retain'd his Purity
Till a few days before his death ;
When the great Comden †
Spread the fame thereof so extensively,
As to attract ev'n the notice of his Prince,

* Miss Tims, Miss Lightfoot, &c. &c.

† Afterwards named Rockingham ; see page 166 and 167.

Who thought it no diminution of Royalty
 To obtain so valuable an acquisition
 By purchase.

And though he parted with his Purity
 At a great price,
 Yet his honour and good name
 Remain'd untarnish'd
 To the end of his life.

At his death, indeed, SLANDER,
 (In the semblance of PITY)
 Talk'd much of his insolvency,
 And much of the ruin of individuals;
 But the proof of his substance,
 And of a surplus not much inferior
 To his original patrimony,
 Soon answered—refuted—and wip'd away
 The Calumny.

To sum up the abstract of his character,
 It may truly be said of him,
 That his frailties were few;
 His virtues many;
 That he liv'd,
 Almost universally lov'd;
 That he died,
 Almost universally lamented.

ON Thursday, January 4, 1787, died, in the 25th year of his age, the noted stallion MORWICK-BALL, the property of Mr. VEVERS of Scholes-Park, near Abberford, Yorkshire. He was got by Regulus, his dam by Traveller, (and was the dam of Yorkshire Jenny, Carabineer, &c.) grandam by Hartley's Blind Horse. MORWICK-BALL won ten Royal plates, five 50l. prizes, and the great subscription of 316l. at York, beating Chatsworth, &c. He was sire of Young Morwick, Icclander, Miss Tippet, and several others.

Y O U N G M A R S K,

Will Cover at Mr. Francis Tideman's at Catterick-Bridge, Yorkshire,

At Five Guineas a Mare, and Five Shillings the Groom.

YOUNG MARSK is the sire of Mr. Peirse's filly that won the 2000gs. stakes at York—Mr. Wetherell's Harlequin Junior, that won at Kelfo, and the Royal Plate at Leith, beating Milfield and Mr. Williamson's Clehongar, allowing him 19lb. and the 50l. at Scarborough—of the Duke of Norfolk's filly that won at Carlisle, beating Dexter—and of Mr. Burdon's colt that won at Stockton, Boroughbridge, and was thought would have won at Northallerton easy, if he had not fallen in the second heat—of Mr. Jolliff's Penelope that won at Malton—Mr. Atkinson's gelding, Sharper, that won at Stafford, and many more capital racers.

He was got by Marsk, his dam by Blank, and was the dam of Sir Harry Harpur's Juniper; his grandam by the Bolton Starling, great grandam, called Meynell, by Crofts's Partner, and was the dam of Trunion, full sister to Ladythigh, and to the dam of Blameless.

All demands for covering, grass, &c. must be fully satisfied before the mares are taken away.

F O X H U N T E R,

(Sire of OPTIMUS)

Will Cover at Nunmonkton, near York,
At Five Guineas a Mare, and Five Shillings the Groom.

He is sixteen hands high, with remarkable bone, and good constitution.

FOXHUNTER was got by Mr. Hutton's Chestnut Ranger, (son of Regulus); his dam by the Cullen Arabian, grandam by Torrismond, great grandam by Young Belgrade, great great grandam by Johnson's Arabian, great great great grandam by Tifter, great great great great grandam by Old Hautboy, great great great great great grandam by Brimmer, out of a Diamond mare.

* * Three only of Foxhunter's get have been trained, viz. Young Foxhunter that won one plate—Foxhuntoribus three—and Optimus that won the subscription at York Spring Meeting, the three years old plates at Nottingham and York, and the sweepstakes at Malton in 1785; also the all ages sweepstakes at York Spring Meeting, 1786, beating Alexander, Sir Walter Vavafour's Marc Antony, and several others. Alexander won two King's plates in the same year, and Marc Antony that at Newcastle, beating Pitch, &c.

A N C A S T E R,

Will Cover at Stutton-Hills, one mile West
of Tadcaster, Yorkshire,

At one Guinea a Mare.

He was got by the Duke of Ancaster's Blank, and out of a mare of the Duke's called Phoebe, which was got by Lord Gower's Tortoise, her dam by Looby, grandam by Crofts's Partner, great grandam by Woodcock, great great grandam by Makeless, great great great grandam by Brimmer, a daughter of Dodsworth, out of a Burton Barb mare. TORTOISE was got by the Godolphin Whitefoot, son of Bay Bolton; his dam by Bartlett's Childers, out of Ovington's Flying Whig, bred by the Earl of Godolphin, got by the Woodstock Arabian, sire of Mr. Frampton's Spider and Pointz, two famous running horses at Newmarket; her dam was bred by Capt. Rider, got by the St. Victor's Barb, out of a daughter of Grey Whynot.

ANCASTER is a fine bay, full 15 hands high, with a deal of bone. There never was any thing of his get ever trained, therefore it may be hoped, as he was a good runner and well bred, likewise an untried horse, that his chance of getting a runner is not inferior to any horse in the North.

His stock is universally esteemed, as they are of a great size and very handsome. Some three years old colts have been sold for great prices—out of cart-mares they are large enough for coach-horses.

Good grass, and proper care taken of the mares.

. He will be at York on Saturdays during the season.

CHRY SOLITE,

(THE HIGHEST-BRED HORSE IN ENGLAND)

Will Cover Mares at Mr. Tho. Matchan's at Towthorp near the City of York,

At Three Guineas a Mare.—Country Mares will be served at One Guinea. He is very fresh, free from all blemishes, and in excellent condition.

CHRY SOLITE was bred by the Duke of Ancaſter, got by Blank, his dam was Blossom, a famous mare of the late Mr Panton's. ſhe was got by Old Crab, her dam by Flying Childers.—This a true pedigree, GRAFTON.

CHRY SOLITE is ſire of Freeholder, Humbug, Parthian, and Mr Swinſen's cheſt. colt that won the great ſtakes at Nottingham in the year 1777, very eaſy, when 15 ſtated, beating Pot80's, Fleacatcher, Raſſelas, &c.

N. B. Gentl men breeders are deſired to obſerve, that CHRY SOLITE has hitherto been kept as a private ſtallion, and out of the few mares that have been put to him, the whole of his get have proved themselves to be capital racers. He is a sure foal-getter, and those of his get are large, handsome, strong, and boney.

* * Good grafs, hay, and corn if required, for the mares.

K I N G F E R G U S,

Will Cover Mares at Catterick, Yorkshire,

He was got by Eclipse, out of Tooting's Polly, and is the dam of Pincher, Pontifex, &c. &c. Polly was bred by Mr. Blake, got by Black and all Black, (own brother to Oroonoko) her dam, called Fanny, by Tartar, (fire of Herod) grandam by the Bolton Starling, great grandam by the Devonshire Flying Childers, great great grandam by Grantham, out of Lilliput, got by Wilkinson's Barb, out of Sir Ralph Milbank's Bald Peg.

It justly may be said, that KING FERGUS is as well bred as any horse on earth, and as likely to get capital Racers, from these and other circumstances. His first and second crosses, Marsk and Regulus; dams, Crab and Tartar: and it is to be observed from Black and all Black, Oroonoko, and their produce, were the following speedy runners, &c. &c. Atalanta, Young Davy, North Briton, Calliope, Melpomene, Young Match'em, North Star, Picture, Flashing Molly, Fair Phillis, and Firetail's dam was got by Black and all Black; as also the grandams of Captive, Orpheus, Luch's, Whitelegs, and Omphale, all out of Calliope; Czarina out of Melpomene; Mr. Garforth's Faith and Young Pacolet out of Atalanta; and Whitelegs is the dam of Mr. Burdon's Young Marsk colt.—Bellario's grandam was own sister to Black and all Black, who was out of Slamakin, the dam of Mr. Panton's Conqueror, and Mr. Fenwick's famous Duchefs, that bred Le Sang, Chymist, Dux, and Phoenix.

KING FERGUS is deemed, by all Judges who have seen him, a complete great horse; and his size and action recommend him as a superior stallion to most other horses, he being 16 hands high, remarkably full of bone, great sinews, well shaped, and free from blemishes; is a sure foal getter, his stock very large and boney.

He was a good runner, though he always appeared in public to disadvantage, being lamed in his trial, and fired at three years old. April 18, 1780, he beat Knight Errant, the two middle miles of the Beacon Course, for 300gs. and the next day he run with Pot80's and Dori-mant, over the Beacon Course, for the 140gs. they were both aged, he but four years old, and carried five years old weights; he ran with bar-shoes, was first by the Stand, till he cast a shoe, notwithstanding he beat Dori-mant. May 3, he won the aged plate at Epsom, beating his Royal Highness the Duke's Don Joseph, Jugurtha, Foppington, Epsom, and several other good runners. October 3, he beat his Royal Highness the Duke's Pomoria, three miles of B. C. for 200gs.—On the 8th following, he beat Lord Derby's Guildford, B. C. for 500gs. and the next day, he won the 5gs. subscription, (14 subscribers) 50gs. entrance, B. C. beating Truth, Flying Gib, High Pri st, Foppington, Herodotus, &c. &c. April 16, 1781, he gave away the year, winning the 50gs. for six-year olds and aged horses, R. C. beating Whizzig, Prince Ferdinand, Tantrum, Little Isaac, Knight Errant, and Tantini. On the 19th of April, he walk'd over D. C. for the five years old plate, no horse of the year chusing to run him. He also won a sweep-stakes at Bath, and many others.
